

BMO Financial Group U.S. Retiree Medical Program Important Provisions

This summary reviews important provisions of the Retiree Medical Program regarding waiving coverage and requesting re-enrollment. For comprehensive information regarding the Retiree Medical Program, please refer to the Summary Plan Descriptions located on www.bmousbenefits.com.

Retiree Medical Waiver Provision

You and/or your eligible dependents have the option to waive your retiree medical coverage through BMO under the Retiree Medical Waiver Provision. This option allows you to retain your retiree medical eligibility status and re-enroll when certain qualifying conditions are met. To enroll in the waiver program, indicate your intent to waive on the Retiree Medical Program Election/Waiver form. This option may be beneficial to you if you are eligible for other employer group medical coverage through a spouse/domestic partner or other employer. If you choose to waive coverage, please carefully read through the provisions outlined below to understand your options. If you elect COBRA health insurance coverage at the time of your retirement, you will give up your right to participate in the Retiree Medical Program and therefore this waiver does not apply.

Please refer to the Retiree Waiver Options Chart for rules that apply based on your age and/or Medicare status and how your election impacts your dependents.

Requesting Re-Enrollment

*Pre-65 Waiver:

You have the option to waive your pre-65 coverage at any time with the opportunity to re-enroll once you meet one of the following guidelines:

- You become Medicare eligible by reaching age 65 or as a result of a disability. You have 31 days from the date of becoming eligible for Medicare to enroll in the Medicare Secondary Plan, unless Medicare enrollment is able to be postponed due to enrollment in other group medical coverage. Refer to the post-65 waiver provision for additional information on eligibility when you become Medicare eligible.
- You lose other group or state-provided medical coverage as a result of one of the qualifying events:
 - a change in legal marital status or qualified domestic partner relationship;
 - a change in employment status of the individual that carried the other employer group coverage;
 - a change in benefit's eligibility status of the individual that carried the other group coverage;
 - a change in residence.
- You experience a significant cost increase or significant coverage curtailment under your other employer group or state provided medical coverage. The cost must exceed the cost of what you would be paying for your BMO retiree medical coverage.
- An eligible spouse/domestic partner would be allowed to enroll in the retiree medical coverage in the event of the retiree's death if otherwise eligible under the Plan. The spouse/domestic partner must have a qualifying event consistent with re-enrolling in coverage as outlined above at the time enrollment is requested.

You have 31 days from the date of the qualifying event to enroll in the Retiree Medical Program.

Post-65 Waiver:

You may waive or continue to waive your coverage after age 65 with the chance to re-enroll only if you have been continuously enrolled in other group medical coverage from the date the age 65/Medicare eligible waiver was effective until the time you are requesting re-enrollment in the Retiree Medical Program. It will be necessary to provide supporting documentation of continuous enrollment in other group medical coverage within 31 days of when you lose your other group coverage and Medicare becomes your primary payer.

To request re-enrollment in the BMO Retiree Medical Program you will need to submit a Retiree Medical Program Election/Waiver form to elect coverage. The following reasons are NOT considered qualifying events that would allow re-enrollment in the Retiree Medical Program:

- Annual enrollment (through BMO or another employer, unless the retiree is enrolled on coverage and changing coverage levels).
- You discontinue coverage under an individual medical policy.
- You voluntarily discontinue other group medical coverage.
- You enroll in COBRA medical insurance through BMO.
- You discontinue COBRA medical insurance through another employer before the full COBRA period is exhausted for a reason other than an increase in cost or coverage curtailment as described above.
- You did not request re-enrollment within 31 days of when Medicare became your primary payer of your health coverage or within 31 days of a qualifying event.

Permanent Cancellation

You can choose to forfeit your eligibility for retiree medical coverage or your coverage may result in permanent cancellation if you do not follow the provisions of the Retiree Medical Program. Any of the following events would result in permanent cancellation of your retiree medical coverage through BMO:

- You elect COBRA medical insurance at the time of your retirement.
- You do not return the Retiree Medical Program Election/Waiver form within 31 days of your retirement date indicating your intention to elect or waive coverage.
- You do not request re-enrollment in the Retiree Medical Program within 31 days of turning age 65, becoming Medicare eligible or experiencing another qualifying event. (Exception: You continue to be enrolled in other group coverage)
- You are over 65 and/or are Medicare eligible and have not been enrolled in other group coverage continuously during your waiver period from the time you became Medicare eligible.
- You enroll in Medicare Part D prescription drug coverage. (Does not apply to Legacy M&I Retirees)
- You voluntarily choose to permanently cancel your coverage.

If the retiree's coverage is permanently cancelled for any reason, coverage is also permanently cancelled for any covered dependents (spouse/domestic partner and/or children). A dependent's coverage can be cancelled without affecting the retiree's enrollment in coverage. You will not have the opportunity to re-enroll in the future once your coverage has been permanently cancelled.

How to calculate your share of the monthly premium

To calculate your share of the premium you will need to reference the full monthly medical premiums to determine the premium for your Plan. You will also need to know your contribution percentages, which can be found on your retiree letter or by contacting the HRC at 1-888-927-7700. See the chart below to help calculate your share of the premium.

Pre-65 2021 Full Monthly Medical Premiums

Retirees who receive a subsidy from BMO beginning at age 65 (Group 3)	How to calculate your share of the premium
Retiree	Step 1 Retiree monthly subsidy = (your years of full-time service (up to 35) x $70)/12	Step 2 Total monthly premium = Individual Only premium – Retiree monthly subsidy
Spouse/Domestic Partner	Step 1 Dependent monthly subsidy = ((your years of full-time service (up to 35) x $70) - $600)/12	Step 2 Total monthly premium = Individual Only premium – Dependent monthly subsidy
Child	Step 1 Dependent monthly subsidy = ((your years of full-time service (up to 35) x $70) - $600)/12	Step 2 Total monthly premium = Individual Only premium – Dependent monthly subsidy

Legacy M&I Employees/Retirees	How to calculate your share of the premium
Retiree	Step 1 Determine the full premium amount for your plan	Step 2 Apply your applicable (pre-65 coverage or post-65 coverage) contribution percentage
Example: You and your spouse are both under 65: Total premium = Retiree+Spouse premium x your contribution % for the Consumer Choice Plan pre-65 coverage. Eligible dependents receive the same contribution percentages that the retiree is eligible for.
